November 15, 2011

JOHN W. ALARIO
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

TO: All Liquefied Petroleum Gas Dealers (Class 1)

FROM: John W. Alario
Director, Louisiana Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission

SUBJECT: Selection of names for a list to be submitted to the Governor for consideration for appointment as a Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission member

PLEASE FOLLOW THESE INSTRUCTIONS EXACTLY:

THE POWER OF ATTORNEY

1. The Commission must have a duly executed power of attorney for voting for the person who will vote your ballot. A power of attorney form is enclosed.
2. An owner, partner, corporate officer or manager must sign the power of attorney for voting for the permit holder.
3. One power of attorney is required for each permit voted.
4. The person voting and signing your ballot must be named in the power of attorney for voting.
5. The power of attorney filed with the Commission will remain effective until revoked by the permit holder.
6. The power of attorney must be returned with your ballot. Ballots returned without a power of attorney will not be valid.

THE BALLOT

1. Ballots must be completely filled out. A ballot form is enclosed.
2. The ballot must be signed by the person having the power of attorney for voting.
3. Only one ballot per permit held may be voted.
4. The ballot must be returned to the Liquefied Petroleum Gas Commission at its domicile in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.
5. The ballot must be postmarked prior to December 1, 2011. Ballots postmarked after November 30, 2011 will not be valid.
6. On the ballot, list up to four different names and complete addresses, with their day-time telephone number. You do not have to list four names but can not list more than four.
7. List only names of natural persons. No company, firm or corporation names can be considered.
8. List only names of persons who have indicated they would serve or have consented to serve, if appointed.
9. The four names receiving the most votes will be forwarded to the Governor's office for consideration for appointment.
10. The results of the balloting will be announced after the balloting process is closed.
